Elected President.
News has just been received in Richmond of the election of Miss Martha Howie, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Branch Howie, to the presidency of the senior class of 1908 in Vassar College.

Miss Howie is the first time in the history of Vassar College that a Southern girl has been accorded a like honor.
As the senior class, under the Vassar system of self-government, is the head of intellectual and social life in that famous institution, her selection as class president is the highest compliment that could be paid her.
Miss Howie will represent Vassar College as its delegate in a convention composed of delegates from all leading women's colleges in the United States. This convention will be held at Silver Lake, Lake George, N. Y.

Cards Out.
Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Mary Oration McCree, daughter of Mrs. J. V. L. McCree, of Richmond, to Mr. Duff Green, of Fredericksburg, at St. James Episcopal Church, this city, on June 12th, at 11 A. M.

Delightful Lecture.
Mr. Michael Sayad, of Urmiah, Persia, gave a very charming and instructive talk before the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon on "Persian Poetry and Literature." He began with the earliest writer, Zoroaster, and spoke successively of all the long roll of great authors that his country has produced. He also read extracts from their works. Mr. Sayad speaks clear and fluent English, though with a slight accent, and his delightful address was thoroughly appreciated.
Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. S. Dabney Crenshaw, Mrs. John A. Coke, Mrs. Pleasanton Conquest, Miss Susie Pleasanton Morris, Mrs. Rutherford Rose, Mrs. William A. Moncure, and Miss Carrie Lee Campbell. Among the guests were Mrs. Haliburton and Mrs. Eddington.

Entertained Graduates.
One of the pleasantest social events in connection with the commencement exercises at the Woman's College of Richmond took place immediately after the class day exercises yesterday, when Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles Nelson, whose home is just opposite the college, entertained the graduating class very informally, but most delightfully. The young ladies, in cap and gown, and were treated to a delicious luncheon. One feature of the menu was the arrangement of the ices in tiny flower pots, with a miniature tree in the center. The significance of this lay in the fact that the class tree this year, a beautiful young maple, had just been dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson.

The host and hostess were charmingly assisted in entertaining by Miss Marion Forbes and Miss Josephine McLeod, of the faculty, and Mrs. Sparks Melton, of Georgia.

Choir to Attend.
Among those who will attend the reunion will be the Confederate Choir, No. 1, of Portsmouth, Va. The members will arrive on Thursday morning, and will be in the city by 10 A. M. at Murphy's Hotel. They are Mrs. J. Griff Edwards, Mrs. Harry Dashiell, Mrs. Sydney Harris, Mrs. Eva Rudd, Mrs. Everett Owen, and Misses Sadie Wilkins, Louise Wilson, Rieta Renn, Emma Williams, Beale, and Annie Blount, Ridley, Sophie Nash, Mattie Lee Williams, Della Beale, Elizabeth and Jane Boyd Neely.

Request to Daughters.
It is requested that all members of Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, shall obtain their reunion badges at once, as admission to the several social functions in connection with the reunion will be by badge alone. These may be had from Mrs. Hugh Miller, at No. 112 North Third Street, or from the Daughters' bureau of information, to be conducted at Murphy's Hotel.

Mrs. Thomas S. Boccock, who has charge of this bureau of information, will be assisted by the following ladies: Mesdames W. R. Vawter, Chiles Perrell, William Wade, N. C. Shelton, J. H. Timberlake, B. A. Blenner, Misses Mary Randolph, Annie Jacobs and Miss Corling.

Miss Kolner Returns.
Miss Marie Jannetta Kolner, who has been attending St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C., will arrive to-morrow evening to spend her vacation with

To Get More Strength from Your Food.

WHEN the Bowels are filled with undigested food we may be a great deal worse off than if we were half starved.
Because food that stays too long in the Bowels decays there, just as if it layed too long in the open air.
Well, when food decays in the Bowels, through delayed and overdue action, what happens?

The millions of little Suction Pumps that line the Bowels and intestines then draw Poison from the decayed Food, instead of the Nourishment they were intended to draw.

This Poison gets into the blood and, in time, it reads all over the body, unless the Cause of Constipation is promptly removed.

That cause of Constipation is Weak, or Lazy Bowel Muscles.

When your Bowel-Muscles grow flabby they need Exercise to strengthen them, not "Physic" to pamper them.

There's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowel-Muscles. Its name is "CASCARETS," and its price is Ten Cents a box.

So, if you want the same natural action that a six mile walk in the country would give you, (without the weariness) take one Cascaret at a time, with intervals between, till you reach the exact condition you desire. One Cascaret at a time will properly cleanse a foul Breath, or Coated Tongue.

Don't fail to carry the Vest Pocket Cascaret Box with you constantly. All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "C.C."

her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kolner, No. 1018 Hanover Avenue. Miss Kolner will be accompanied by her friend and classmate, Miss Alice Winston Sprull, of Lewisburg, N. C., who will be her guest for several weeks. Both young ladies are members of the Kappa Delta Sorority, and are very popular among their schoolmates.

Moonlight To-night.
A delightful event of this evening will be the moonlight excursion down the James to Dutch Gap, for the benefit of the Church of the Holy Comforter, the youngest Episcopal church in Richmond.

The entire congregation will unite in the effort to make the trip enjoyable, and music, refreshments and the radiance of a full moon will doubtless leave nothing to be desired in the way of entertainment. The Pocomonts will leave Rockets at 8 P. M., and tickets may be had at the church.

Thanks Returned.
The president and board of the Instructive Visiting Nurses' Association, under whose auspices Ben Greet gave two plays at Richmond College for the benefit of the association, desire to thank the press and all firms and private individuals who so generously aided them. Despite the unfavorable weather, which drove the players indoors, a handsome sum was realized.

Approaching Marriage.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lanier Petty, of Mecklenburg county, Va., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Julia, to Mr. John W. Young, also of Mecklenburg county. The marriage will take place on the morning of the 5th of June, at Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, Union Level, Va.

Delegates to Memorial Association.
The Hollywood Memorial Association has elected Mrs. J. Taylor Elyson and Mrs. James H. Worth delegates to the Confederate Southern Memorial Association, which convene at the Second Baptist Church on Thursday, Mrs. George L. Christian and Mrs. G. W. F. Brock were chosen alternates.

Regular Meeting.
The regular monthly meeting of the board of managers of the Retreat for the Sick will be held at noon to-morrow, instead of Thursday.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Scheer announce the engagement of their daughter, Lizzie Sarah, to Mr. Louis L. Dettelbach, of Atlanta, Ga.

Reunion Guests.
Mrs. Frank E. Hyde, of Paris, France, is in the city, the guest of Colonel and Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe. Other guests of Colonel and Mrs. McCabe for the reunion are Colonel and Mrs. Archibald Gracie, of Washington, and Major Andrew R. Venable, formerly inspector-general on General Stuart's staff.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. Landon C. Berkeley, of Danville, Va., is visiting Mrs. Charles B. Cook, on Hermitage Road, for reunion week.

Mr. J. W. Moon, an old Confederate veteran, now of Salem, Va., but formerly of Fredericksburg, will arrive to-day to spend reunion week with his daughter, Mrs. J. Lee Kolner, No. 1018 Hanover Street.

Mrs. W. Wallace Rowe left yesterday to spend the summer at Crozet, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Richardson, of Huntsville, Ala., will visit the Misses Edmonds, No. 106 West Grace Street, during the reunion.

Mrs. Sheldon Stringer, of Brooksville, Fla., president of the Florida Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, will visit Richmond during the reunion.

Captain and Mrs. Greenville Penn, of Danville, Va., and Mrs. C. J. Matthews and Mrs. R. M. E. Ellington, of Raleigh, N. C., will visit Dr. and Mrs. Landon B. Edwards, No. 106 West Grace Street, during the reunion.

Misses Lattie and Mary Garrett, of Williamsburg, Va., are the guests for reunion week of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lightfoot, of No. 500 North Tenth Street.

Colonel and Mrs. David B. McIntosh, of the infantry, will spend the reunion week with Mrs. Joseph R. Anderson.

Professor and Mrs. Edmund Harrison, of Hopkinsville, Ky.; Miss Mary Kerr Hoge and Misses French and Percy Hoge, of Frankfort, Ky., will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoge at No. 716 East Franklin Street during the reunion.

Judge William Richardson, Congressman from Huntsville, Ala., and an ardent ex-Confederate soldier, will be in Richmond during the reunion, and stop at the Richmond Hotel.

Dr. Hugh Blanton and daughter, Miss Belle Blanton, of Adrian, Mo., will attend the reunion, and will also Extensive preparations are under way of the great International Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which is to meet in Washington, D. C., September 25th-29th. Representatives of the organization are expected from practically every State in the Union, and also from the West Indies, Canada, England and Scotland. The Brotherhood is an organization of laymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and has its inception from a men's Bible class in 1883 in St. James Church, Chicago.

Since then the organization has grown along practical and careful lines, having spread throughout the United States and Canada, and to foreign countries, until now it numbers a membership of over 20,000 men and boys.

At the Washington convention the program will be the most attractive that has been presented at a Brotherhood convention, and contains the names as speakers of some of the most prominent bishops, clergymen and laymen of the Anglican communion, some of which are the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the American Church; Rt. Rev. Enos Nuttall, archbishop of the West Indies; Rt. Rev. Edgar Jacob, bishop of St. Albans, England; Rt. Rev. A. F. Winnington-Ingram, bishop of London; and George P. King, vice-president of the Brotherhood in England. It is anticipated that about 4,000 representatives will attend this convention, making it the largest gathering of the laymen of the Anglican Communion ever assembled.

KEMP ACCEPTS POST OF DEPUTY GRAND REGENT

Richmond Man Gets High Position in Royal Arcanum of Virginia.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Royal Arcanum of this State, Mr. Harry Kemp was unanimously elected deputy grand regent of Virginia. After consultation with the grand regent, Mr. Kemp has accepted the position, and will begin his work June 1st. Mr. Kemp has been a resident of Richmond for many years. For the past eight years he has been connected with fraternal insurance orders. Seven of those eight years have been given to the Royal Arcanum, for which he has rendered valuable service. His many friends throughout the State and in the city will rejoice that after a year's absence from the Royal Arcanum, he returns to his first love, and will be welcomed as special deputy grand regent in the old Commonwealth. Mr. Kemp lives at No. 513 North Seventh Street.

JAIL-BIRD PREACHER.

Unfreed Clergyman Preaches Sermon to Inmates of Jail.
A peculiar picture of one prisoner preaching to the others incarcerated in the City Jail was presented Sunday by the "Rev." John Thompson Hargrave, who was recently arrested and held for the United States authorities, charged with fraud. The subject of Hargrave's discourse was "Let us all work together for the good of the Lord."

This is the first sermon that has been delivered by a prisoner at the jail for some time, and was largely attended by those who are guests of that institution. If the man is guilty and wished to make an impression, it is said by those who were present, he did it, though his sermon greatly affected some of the inmates, it made anything but a favorable impression on the former, who state that throughout the affair there was a ring of hypocrisy in the man's words.

DROPPED FROM ROLL.

Military Men Discharged for Inattention and General Incompetency.
The following order was issued from the office of the Adjutant General yesterday. It explains itself.

May 27, 1907.
Special Orders No. 41.
The following named enlisted men of Company B, Norfolk, Seventy-first Infantry, Virginia Volunteers, having been recommended by their commanding officer for discharge from the military service of the State of Virginia, for the good of the service, "on account of inattention to military duties and incompetency," they are hereby discharged:

Corporal Charles D. Bew,
Private George U. Beaton,
Private Willie C. Rutter,
Private Earl G. Swan.

By order of CLAUDE A. SWANSON,
Governor and Commander in Chief,
CHARLES J. ANDERSON,
Adjutant General.

Charged With Being Drunk.

being intoxicated. The judge tried the substance for his arrest, but the latter would only say that a man at the Cedar Works gave it to him. A fine of $2.50 was imposed, and the boy "stepped back." Afterwards his mother told that she would make her son tell her where he secured the liquor if his Honor would be lenient. The fine was cut in half, and the boy went home with his mother, who says she will not only learn where Hutchins got the liquor, but that she would procure a warrant for the owner of the place.
